

Father to the Fatherless

Ryan Kondo

Am / Em / G / D / Am / Em / G / D /

You are not a man, that You should lie
You will not forsake the orphan, God
Father to the fatherless, Father to the fatherless

Bring Your children into Your house
And into the homes of Your church
Swing wide the doors

Swing wide the doors, swing wide the doors
Swing wide the doors, swing wide the doors

I want you to know that you're My son, My daughter
And I'm calling you into a family
You have a great destiny

We claim these children for Your glory, by the Spirit
Though miles away
You will answer when we cry out, when we cry out
When we cry today
